CHAPTER 1934

An act to amend Section 1381 of the Penal Code, relating to time for trial of prisoners for other offenses.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1963. Filed with Secretary of State July 24, 1963.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1381 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1381. Whenever a defendant has been convicted, in any court of this State, of the commission of a felony or indictable misdemeanor and has been sentenced to and has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a state prison or has been committed to and placed in an institution subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of the Youth Authority or whenever any person has been committed to the custody of the Director of Corrections pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 6400) of Title 7 of Part 3 of this code and has entered upon his term of commitment, and at the time of the entry upon such term of imprisonment or commitment there is pending, in any court of this State, any other indictment, information, or complaint charging such person with the commission of any crime it is hereby made mandatory upon the district attorney of the county in which such charge is pending to bring the same to trial within 90 days after such person shall have delivered to said district attorney written notice of the place of his imprisonment or commitment and his desire to be brought to trial upon said charge unless a continuance beyond said 90 days is requested or consented to by such person, in open court, and such request or consent entered upon the minutes of the court in which event the 90-day period herein provided for shall commence to run anew from the date to which such consent or request continued the trial. In the event such action is not brought to trial within the 90 days as herein provided the court in which such charge is pending must, on motion or suggestion of the district attorney, or of the defendant or person committed to the custody of the Director of Corrections or his counsel, or of the State Department of Corrections, or of the Department of the Youth Authority, or on its own motion, dismiss such charge. If a charge is filed against a person during the time such person is serving a sentence in any state prison of this State or a commitment pursuant to Chapter 11 of Title 7 of Part 3 or commitment in any institution subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of the Youth Authority it is hereby made mandatory upon the district attorney of the county in which such charge is filed to bring the same to trial within 90 days after said person shall have delivered to said district attorney written notice of the place of his imprisonment or commitment and his desire to
